

Today we celebrate the 125th anniversary of the Grangeville Christian Church.

Grangeville Christian Church's story weaves faith, place, and people across 125 years. It all began on the Camas Prairie, a land rich with history long before the congregation formed.

Today, Grangeville Christian Church stands as a living legacy—125 years strong and still growing. The church is more than a building; it's a community where faith is lived out daily. Ministries reach every generation, from Noah's Ark Preschool to vibrant children's and youth programs, Bible studies, and community gatherings.

The story of Grangeville Christian Church is a testament to ordinary faith made visible through acts of service, worship, and welcome. As the church moves into the future, it remains committed to being a welcoming, Bible-based church where clear, expository Bible preaching transforms everyday life, and faith and family thrive.

The next chapter belongs to those who are here now, carrying forward a tradition of grace, celebration, and transformation. The invitation is open—to keep making room, keep serving, and follow where faith leads next.
